

Press Release – October 2025

The 132nd IATP Conference Successfully Concludes in Bali, Indonesia

Bali, Indonesia — The 132nd International Airlines Technical Pool (IATP) Conference was successfully held from 27 September to 1 October 2025 at the Grand Hyatt Bali Resort, bringing together more than 600 representatives from Airlines, Associate Members, and Authorized Guest Vendors from around the world.

In his opening address, Mr. Essam Hanafy, Chairman and Custodian of IATP, warmly welcomed all participants and highlighted the organization's ongoing commitment to fostering global collaboration within the aviation industry. The conference featured a series of engaging events, productive meetings, and networking opportunities, including more than 2,800 B2B meetings where participants discussed and finalized pooling agreements covering spare parts, aircraft recovery, equipment, engines, and line maintenance support for the upcoming season.

A highlight of the event was the launch of the new APU Pooling Meeting, which was well attended and received positive feedback. Encouraged by this success, IATP is exploring the establishment of a new pool group dedicated to APU operations.

As in previous years, the AOG Speed Meetings drew strong interest and active participation, demonstrating their value.

The success of this year's conference was made possible through the support and sponsorship of Ministry of Tourism of the Republic of Indonesia, IATP Members, the, and Authorized Guest Vendors, ensuring a memorable and productive gathering for all attendees.

Conference Highlights

- Membership Growth: Six new airlines — Copa (CM), Iberojet (E9), Eurowings (EW), Air Arabia (G9), Omni Air (OY), and VietJet (VJ) — along with one new Associate Member, Hangar 901, joined IATP. This growth brings the organization to a record 143 Member Airlines and 45 Associate Members, effective November 01st, 2025. In total, the 132nd IATP Conference hosted representatives from over 200 air transport industry companies.
- Observer Participation: Five airlines interested in future IATP membership attended the conference as Observers.

Participants also enjoyed hospitality events at the end of each business day. On Sunday, they participated in a cultural tour, which included a visit to Taman Ayun, featuring an exclusive Barong Dance performance, followed by a trip to the iconic Tanah Lot Temple and its scenic coastal surroundings. The tour concluded with an evening dinner at De Jukung Garden Restaurant, offering panoramic ocean views, local performances, and spectacular fireworks.

The 133rd IATP Conference is scheduled for 7–11 March 2026 in St. Julian's, Malta, and the organization looks forward to welcoming all members and participants there.

The IATP Mission Statement

The IATP is a convention of Airlines sharing Technical Resources to generate economic savings and support on time dispatch reliability and operational safety. The IATP is a non-profit, independent, non-political global organization based on a democratic culture with equal opportunities for all member Airlines and their delegates.

Technical Resources includes, but not limited to, aircraft spare parts, line maintenance, ground handling equipment, engines, aircraft recovery kits and technical training.

About IATP

Today IATP counts 138 airline members and 44 associate members (OEMs and service providers) and operates worldwide in about 900 stations; pooling activities cover almost all aircraft types. All member airlines meet twice per year at conferences held in March and October in different countries. The organization is run by a Management Board, supported by a Corporate Office based in Luxembourg, and overseen by the member airlines through the elected Advisory Committee.
